Summer Daze by Evan Kramer

What can I say. The Jubilee Committee came through in good fashion and produced another fun filled Fourth of July celebration. Dennis Bodewig, Martha Weaver Britell, Sandy Cockrell, Viola Cuatt, Julie Farmer, Steve Tavalero, Wilbur Green and Marion Johnson were the mainstays of the committee and they all deserve a big thank you. They all put in a lot of hours planning the Jubilee and then actually putting it on after many months of preparation. The wind even calmed down a little on Monday from its previous gale like forces.

I didn't get to take part in all the events, but the ones I did see lived up to expectations. The pet show at Jennie's Old Towne Cantina featured a group of some of the best behaved dogs I've seen. After the dogs and other pets had been paraded past the judges they all formed a large circle while waiting for their awards. Didn't see any snapping dogs lunging at one another. I know of one dog whose owner had him on a leash which was real fortuitous for the pet ferret it spotted. Kathryn Jamieson's white chicken Khutic (hen or rooster?) was agreeable enough to let people pick it up with a lot of squawking. All the participants in the pet show were awarded a well deserved prize.

The parade on Monday morning was a sight to behold. The parade is a most democratic affair. Everyone and any kind of group can participate. I really got a kick out of the Hillah Temple Oriental Band. The one question I have is, "Where did they get that sawed off bus the band played on top of?" Some of the new entrants this year were the Sixes Grange rollerskaters and the Port Orford Leo's Club.

People start arriving for the grand finale fireworks display at Battle Rock Park early. Some drive their cars down on to the beach while others enjoy a hike up to the top of Battle Rock. By darkness all parking is taken within several blocks and the park is jammed. Then the fireworks begin!

Curry County Fair

The 61st edition of the Curry County Fair is three weeks away now. The Fair's theme this year is "Cheers to Another 60 Years". The Fair runs from Thursday, July 28 through Sunday, July 31. The Fair features many events each day including entertainment, livestock shows, a karaoke contest, a rodeo, and the Fair parade on Saturday morning. Butler Amusements will provide the midway and carnival rides. This year features not only a return of demolition derby on Sunday afternoon but more importantly the welcome return of Ron Crook as fair manager. It was hard for me to enjoy last year's Fair knowing Ron's position of Fair Manager had been eliminated by the Fair Board who themselves took over management of the facility. Ron was rehired in June and will serve as part time manager for the 1994-95 year. The only member of the Fair Board that let Ron go last year remaining on that Board is Viola Cuatt.

The Curry County Fair received no money in the 1994-94 County budget. They did receive $34,720 from the State of Oregon for this fiscal year. The rest of the money for the Fair and year round maintenance of the fairgrounds will come from whatever revenues are generated. Ron says his two highest priorities are to provide the best fair for Curry County that the staff and volunteers can, and to keep up the condition of the facility and keep it open all year. He says there are many volunteers from the community willing to help out with the Fair.

Fire At Cape Blanco State Park

A fire destroyed a motor home on Monday night at Cape Blanco State Park. The fire call came in during the fireworks show at Battle Rock Park. Sixes Fire Department responded and called on Port Orford for mutual aid. Coos Forest Patrol also responded to the fire. The large motor home parked at space #53 was totally destroyed. The propane tanks in the motor home burned and fire spread to brush around the camp site. The fire in the brush was contained to an area approximately one tenth of an acre in the vicinity of the motor home.

Jubilee Pet Show

Sheba, a dog, came all the way from Anchorage, Alaska to participate in this year's pet show. She joined fellow dogs Bernie, Casey, Paws, Buffy, Freckles, Jock, Seth, Thrisha, Jake, Charlie, Poco, Blossom, Clyde, Jasmin, Teddy, Bud, Paco and Casper in the pet parade. Also present were Iggy the Iguana, Khutie the chicken, Miracle Bird, Bigfoot the ferret, the two turtles Tatoo and Taters, six Angora bunnies and several kittens.

They were very grateful to the humans who made the show possible: Marian Johnson, Ann Foss, Jennie Lozano and Denny Boodwig. And, to their human companions who made the arrangements for their attendance.

The Jubilee Committee thanks the following merchants for their donations: Bartlett's Cafe, Crazy Norwegian's, West Coast Game Park, Downtown Fun Zone, New To You Beauty Boutique, Jenny's Old Towne Cantina, McNair's Hardware, Nails by Delaine, Pet Pals Pet Grooming, Port Orford Pharmacy, Port and Starboard Restaurant, Sentry Market, Shell Shack, Western Mercantile and Automotive, Whale Cove Restaurant, The Wooden Nickel and First Interstate Bank.

The Chamber of Commerce concluded this year's fireworks sales with a bang. They sold $2848.59 worth of fireworks out of their trailer. Many people helped sell fireworks at the Chamber trailer. Thanks to the following volunteers: Norma Anderson, Pat and Jim Campbell, Sandy Cockrell, Shirley Fair, Betty Graham, Marian Johnson, Jan Kuhl, Karen Charlie and Diane McCoy, Sarah Quillen, Karen Smith, Dick Wold, Bruce and Joyce Yoom. Al Affonso was in charge of fireworks sales for the Chamber and opened and closed the booth every day in addition to spending many hours selling the fireworks.

Olden Days By Thelma Lagace

Parades were always an event
In Olden days in my home town.
Half of the people lined the street
While the other half marched down.

Early on the holiday
Floats and cars all got in line,
Horses, tractors and fire trucks,
Military squads and bands so fine.

The "Color Guard" led the parade
With flags and heads held high,
Old Glory with her golden fringe...
We all stood as they marched by.

If children didn't understand
Their parents told them why,
With hand over heart, with all respect
We stand as the flag goes by.

Fair Seeks Past Fair Courts

In keeping with the 1994 Curry County Fair theme, "Cheers to Another 60 Years!", the fair coordinators are seeking all of the last 60 years' queens and their courts to honor their past contributions. "Every past reigning monarch of the Curry County Fair is invited to join in the anniversary celebration" stated Mureen Walker, Fair event volunteer. "There have been many titles over the years, beginning with the 'Fairest Farmerette' on through to this year when Donna Dehart will reign as the 'Rodeo Queen of the Curry County Fair'". The very first queen and her court will be highly honored in Saturday's parade, July 30 and at the presentation of awards afterward. The original court will also make a guest appearance at the Junior Fair Court Pageant on Friday. Anyone with information leading to past fair queens or their courts, are asked to contact the Curry County Fair office at 247-4541 or 1-800-934-FAIR. If you would like to receive a list of names to help identify the queens and their courts, you may also contact the Fair Office or the Gold Beach Chamber of Commerce at 247-7526.

Letter To The Editor:

In the June 23 issue of Port Orford Today appeared a provocative article by T.J. Efferson, Langlois. His basic thesis seemed to be that there should be no social (i.e. political?) restraints upon the exercise of individual freedom and that any attempt to do so would lead to despotism. It is true that out of that beautiful Declaration of Independence came the rhetorical suggestion that "all men are created equal endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights..." but the fulfillment of such rights has never been achieved by any society no matter how democratic. Anarchy is a behavioral mode that is not tolerated nor can it be in a society that proclaims for itself common egalitarian objectives. "Life" is taken, "liberty" is restricted, "the pursuit of happiness" circumscribed when the common good is believed threatened.

So what are the objectives of our society? The exercise of absolute individual rights? Or the advancement, not of the Declaration's assumption that "all men are created equal" but a society in which all are given an equal opportunity? Do we seek a condition in which a degree of "managed freedom" may help to level the playing field, a formula that will reflect our respect for the individual as well as the social whole?

When arguing for ratification of the Constitution, James Madison in his Federalist Paper #10, sought to balance the equation between public good and individual freedom knowing that "factions" would tend to dominate the body politic.

So what is freedom in the context of a representative democracy corrupted as ours is today by special interests, well-organized and well-heeled? Out of history comes much evidence that unrestrained individualism, powerful incentive that it is, can abuse the public good, exploit our resource base, foul our environment... Are we about to presume because our current distrust of representative government that the individual or the "factions", especially those of great wealth, can protect our society from dissolution, corruption, decay?

Was James Madison possessed of a wisdom about the nature of man that two hundred years later has yet to be understood? Makes for interesting speculation today.

Well, Bob, apparently you saw something different in Tom's letter than I did. I don't think any of us wish for anarchy but when the government confiscates via taxes about 50% of the individual's wages then it's certainly time for some changes. Mr. Efferson proclaimed for capitalism and against socialism and communism. I support his stand on those matters.
