Vol 5. Number 37*Bandon Cranberry Festival*By Evan Kramer

Bandon's annual Cranberry Festival takes place this weekend, Sept. 22 -25. Festival organizers and supporters have lined up four days of fun starting Thursday morning and running through Sunday afternoon. The theme of this year's festival is "Cranberry Sea and Surf."

The Festival Grand Parade takes place Saturday morning at 10:00am along Highway 101 in Bandon. The popular festival market takes place at City Park on Saturday from 10-5 and on Sunday from 10-3. Friday and Saturday evenings several musical events take place including live music at Christophe (Inn At Face Rock), Andrea's in Old Town, and Lloyd's Lounge in Old Town. Saturday night's additional musical treats include square dancing at the Ocean Crest Gym and the Queen's Ball at the High School cafeteria sponsored by Project Graduation. Cranberry Festival schedules will be available in Bandon and you'll need one to keep up with the dozens of events taking place.

Wow, Port Orford just came off its third big weekend with the Lightin' Bugs Little Reno night last Saturday night. That along with the Team Continental auto races and the Tuna Jam at the Port of Port Orford has made for a busy September around here. The Lightin' Bugs outdid themselves this year. They turned the Community Building into a 50's sock hop and invited the public to dress accordingly. Some did a great job of getting in the spirit of the Eisenhower years including Al (The Fonz) and Maureen (Peggy Sue) Affonso who won the jitterbug contest and Patty Reese who won the hula hoop contest. The winners of the twist contest were Wendell Blase and Shirley Fair. Chubby Checker would have been proud of their efforts at twisting the night away. The band for the evening, the fabulous Tourist, kept everybody dancing with a mixture of fast and slow rock'n'roll songs from the 50's and early 60's.

No, Valerie didn't break the casino this year like last year but she did find a "friendly" wheel and walked away with a very nice prize. I stuck to the 21 tables nearly the whole evening and enjoyed kibitzing with "21" dealers Dotti Myers and Scott McDonald. Now, in less than three months we'll all be enjoying Christmas lights along Highway 101 thanks to the fund raising efforts of the Lightin' Bugs.

Welcome to Port Orford, Ron Cohen. Ron travels up to Port Orford so regularly he should be a poster boy for the Chamber of Commerce. Ron and I worked at the Burbank Post Office together for many years and served as president and vice-president of our union local together for an all too brief period of time. Although Ron lives nearly 1,000 miles south of here he knew about the Bandon Cranberry Festival and was interested in attending it. He also told me he wanted to see a lighthouse and I told him the great news about Cape Blanco lighthouse being open. Guess where we're going?

Valerie and I were saddened to learn of the death last Saturday of our friend Wendy Pederson of Coos Bay. Just a few short days prior to her death she had been released from the hospital after having stomach surgery. I know she wasn't planning to die because she had put on a set of new tires on her recently acquired used Honda. She had also acquired a few clients for an accounting business she was starting. We enjoyed visiting her and her seven pampered and well loved cats. The three of us had a standing tradition to get together at our house every Fourth of July and spend the day enjoying the Jubilee celebration. Wendy was 48 years old and it was too soon for her to leave.

Great Oregon Fall Beach Cleanup

Saturday, Sept. 24, is the semi-annual great Oregon Fall Beach Cleanup. Take a look at the trees. Fall has arrived. Volunteers are being asked to show up at 10:00am on Saturday morning and they intend to wrap the garbage up by 1:00pm. There are three zones of interest in our area including Zone 12 which stretches from Cape Arago to Sixes River and the volunteer coordinator is Ruth Ball, 347-2779. Volunteers will meet at "The Barn" in City Park in Bandon. Zone 13 which covers Sixes River to Ophir and

Letter To The Editor,

The city of Port Orford has been incorporated since 1935, and now it seems, it is in vogue that city officials should have a city credit card.

Having been in business for a number of years, I have found that when people are given a way to spend corporate moneys, it is difficult to obtain proper account reports. When they spend their own money and are reimbursed, then two things happen, one the report is turned in on a timely basis, and the city is able to review the expenses prior to paying them and if the person has used improper judgment in their expenditures then the items can be reviewed before payment is made.

This has been an accepted practice for many years and with the few times city officials have to go on trips there doesn't seem to be any good reason for the taxpayers of Port Orford to provide our elected officials with credit card individually or collectively.

D&J Texaco Minimart To Donate Coffee Proceeds To Hospital

Put your caffeine habit to work to help "Fill Curry's Heart." From now through the end of Curry General Hospital's $100,000 fund-raiser, a quarter will be set aside for the hospital for every medium or large coffee purchased at D&J Texaco Minimart in Gold Beach.

The fund-raiser kicked off May 1 and will end Nov. 1, 1994.

Coffee contributions, made possible in part with help from Endert Distributing of Crescent City, are "one way we could help be a part of the fund-raiser," Jim Turner, Texaco owner, said. "We didn't want to be left out."

The goal of the campaign is to raise enough money to purchase an electronic "super" monitoring system. The equipment is manufactured by the Datascope Corp. and will be used to help save lives throughout the hospital — in the emergency room, surgery, obstetrics and by patients' bedsides.

According to the "Fill Curry's Heart" fund-raiser sign in front of Gold Beach City Hall, the effort has raised about $30,000 in cash and in-kind donations. Fund-raising committee members report, however, that only about half of that total is cash that can be applied toward the Datascope monitoring system.

Elsewhere around Gold Beach, The Oregon Coast Trading Post is contributing a dime for every fountain drink purchased; and Dairy Queen is contributing a quarter for every sale of ice-cream Blizzard or frozen yogurt Breeze (just through September).

Tax-deductible donations can be mailed directly to "Fill Curry's Heart," 220 East Fourth Street, Gold Beach, OR 97444. For more information, phone the hospital, (503) 247-6621 extension 159; or toll-free, 1-800-445-8085.

Computers measure speeds in "nanoseconds" and "Picoseconds" (one billionth and one trillionth of a second respectively.) Still, the shortest period of time known is the interval between the time a New York city traffic light turns green and the cab behind you honks his horn.

Creativity Amplified: Vessels of Change in the Fiber Form

Three of Oregon's finest contemporary basket makers have woven their forces and talents to offer the first intensive workshop on non-traditional applications in fiber.

Participants will be encouraged to use their personal spirituality to evoke change in their everyday life through art and creativity.

Instructors Joyce Spicer-Kinney, Judy Zafforoni and Shannon Weber will immerse you in group and individual projects. Regional Northwest plants, prepared reeds and hand-made papers will be the materials used. Non-traditional weaving, painting, dyeing and embellishment techniques will be employed.

The retreat will be balanced by intuitive counselor Ann McGinity. Daily talks will be offered on the importance of spirituality, ritual and creativity to focus the artistic process.

This workshop will be held in Yachats, Oregon, from Friday Sept. 30 to Sunday Oct. 2, 1994. The cost of $225 includes gourmet meals, lodging and materials. For further information contact Ann McGinity at 342-8491.

Anne Frank Community Exhibit

The Anne Frank Community Exhibit will be on display at the new Chetco Community Public Library in Brookings starting October 2. The Exhibit which is free to the public will run through October 15. The hours are 8:00am to 8:00pm.

The Anne Frank Community Exhibit, on loan from Anne Frank Center USA, is a presentation of historic photographs and memorabilia depicting the life of Anne Frank from birth to her death at age 15 in the Bergen-Belsen concentration camp.

Hike To Blacklock Point

Basil Andrews will lead an easy hike to Blacklock Point on Saturday, September 24. This area was recently added to the National Register of Historic Places because of its long human occupation. The windswept headland prairie and rugged oceanfront sandstone cliffs have inhabited for over 8,000 years.

The hike begins at the Cape Blanco State Airport and continues out through the wetland area. There hikers will find ponds and bogs with dense stands of rhododendron, wax myrtle, evergreen huckleberry and Labrador tea. To the west of the airstrip is a pygmy forest of spruce and pine.

Bring lunch and water, and wear good shoes. Meet at the end of Airport Road at 10:00am. To carpool meet at Driftwood School in Port Orford at 9:30am, or at the Forest Service parking lot in Gold Beach at 8:30am. For more information call Dothea Petersen at 247-7944.

Roaring Sea Open House

Everyone is invited to the next monthly open house at Roaring Sea Arts, on Sunday, September 25, from 2:00 to 5:00pm.

Lance Cox will be showing some of his new drawings. Sheila Brower from Mt. Shasta will display wall sculptures and jewelry. Shirley Nounnan will bring her weavings. Alicia Ucalono of the Ace of Gems will be featuring some spectacular amber pieces.

Three members of the Kammeroque ensemble will play, with guest artist Crystal Landuoci on keyboard, at 2:15, 3:15 and 4:15pm.

Refreshments and snacks are, as usual, pot luck, to add to the fun of sharing an afternoon with genial people. Rosy Roselius, who always assists with parking, will be happy to show you the treasures in his attic-garage-workshop sale. If you have any questions, call Donna at 332-4444.

Fun At The Fun Zone

Jyro-Fun set up their "Human Powered Gyroscope" outside The Local Nook and The Downtown Fun Zone on Wednesday, Sept. 21. If you missed seeing it, Pacific Premium Seafoods announced they were curtailing operations for a temporary period of up to sixty days. A spokesman for the company said that unstable product quality had resulted in poor foreign sales and that the company had cut back operations until the quality of harvested material improves. This sort of closure has been done before and is a normal part of the business.

watch for it this weekend at the Bandon Cranberry Festival. A 3-minute ride is $3 for children under 13 and $4 for 13 and older or you can try 5 minutes for $5.

Temporary Plant Closure

The company expects to re-open no later than November 15 but could re-open as early as next week. Although product from other nearby areas remains poor, a test of the local reef showed the quality there to be good. Test marketing of a sample from the local reef is currently being done in Japan.

Although harvesting the local reef is legal at this time, the co-op members have a gentlemen's agreement to refrain from harvesting it until November 1. Non-members have been reported to be harvesting the reef since last week and this may force an early end to the voluntary closure.
