Go Ducks!

Go Gang Green (Ducks)

By Evan Kramer

Valerie and I were in Eugene this past weekend and I finally found something that pushed Santa Clause off the front page. Of course I'm speaking about the University of Oregon Ducks, also known in Eugene as the Gang Green. The Ducks are making their first visit to Pasadena's famed Rose Bowl in 37 years. Gang Green and Ducks signs are going up everywhere around town. Green is the color and #1 will be the number after January 1, 1995.

Condolences

Our condolences and heart felt sympathy go to our friend Eric Reutererona. Eric's wife Hazel died on Sunday evening at their home in Port Orford. Funeral services and burial were held for Hazel at Willamette National Cemetery in Portland on Wednesday, December 7. Eric and Hazel were married over 50 years and have lived in the Port Orford/Sixes area since 1950. Hazel was a nurse for many years at Southern Coos General Hospital in Bandon. Eric expressed a lot of respect and admiration for the nurses at Curry Home Health Department and Dr. Tom Pitchford for their assistance in Hazel's care. But from my observation Eric's loving and tender care for his wife was the ultimate in love and care.

Tim O'Hearn Fundraising Raffle

Carlene Armi came by on Tuesday with more information on the fund-raising raffle for Tim O'Hearn. She offered special thanks to the Christmas Bazaar for donating free space to sell tickets for the raffle and all the people who were very generous and caring and kindness. Carlene told us 319 tickets were sold at the Bazaar and lots more than that made in donations. Cindy Lawson spent many cold hours and days in front of Sentry Market to raise funds and sell tickets. The total number of tickets sold will be known on Sunday. Continued ticket sales will be held in front of Sentry Market the rest of this week. The raffle will be held at the Port Orford Senior Center on Sunday, December 11, at 3:00pm. You don't have to be present to win.

There has been a sea of donated items and a river of donated money from residents of Port Orford who are making a big splash in the bucket for the O'Hearn family. Thank you to all and keep up the sharing and caring. Happy holidays and good luck. Carlene, who has organized this raffle, gave us this list of additional raffle items that have been donated.

Bandon Youth Basketball League

Port Orford-Langlois has been asked to participate in the Bandon Youth Basketball League, for kids grades 3 - 6. The 3rd and 4th grade teams will be coed and the 5th and 6th grades will have separate boys and girls teams. Teams from Bandon, Mrytle Point and Powers will be participating.

Games will be scheduled on Saturdays at the Blanco Gym and at the other participating towns. We need coaches, helpers, and parents willing to help transport kids to the out-of-town games.

American Heart CPR Class

An American Heart CPR Class will be given Saturday, December 10, 8:30 am to 5:00 pm, at the Port Orford City Council Chambers. Donna Lindberg and Lynda Foster will instruct the class in cardiopulmonary resuscitation techniques for use on infants, children and adults. Participants will practice these life-saving techniques on life-sized mannequins and will receive an American Heart CPR card upon successful completion of the class. Cost of the class is $10. Pre-registration is required, by calling 332-1325 or 247-2741, on or before December 8. This class is offered by Curry Community Education, a service of Curry ESD, by contract with SWOCC.

Sign-up sheets will be distributed through the schools or can be picked up at Chetco Federal Credit Union or Langlois Market. Completed forms need to be dropped off at those two sites by December 16. Call: Keith Rowling - 332-5292 or Lonnie Pretti - 332-1325 if you have any questions. A donation of $10 is requested to cover costs.

Your Computer Is Under Attack!

by Valerie Jean Kramer

Has your computer ever locked up and you had to turn it off and on to fix it? Ever had to replace parts that failed for no obvious reason? Ever lost data and didn't know why? Had modem or network errors? All of these symptoms can be caused by problems with your electric power. I recently learned a LOT about power problems and cures.

Before I went to COMDEX this year, I was pretty complacent about power. I had surge suppressers on all of my machines and figured I was OK. Wrong! In this part of the country we can expect that in an average year we will experience 7,056 power problems! That's 6497 spikes, 502 surges, 27 sags, and 30 outages. True, many of these last for such a small fraction of a second that you can't see them but they can devastate a computer that routinely dices up a second into 33, 66, or 100 million parts! Here's a bit of what I learned. . .

A spike, or transient, is a very brief pulse of very high voltage. The voltage may reach several thousand volts but only for a few millionths of a second. You won't even know it happened. Spikes can be caused by lightning strikes or when a large load (such as a sawmill, electric heater, etc.) is switched on or off.

A surge, or overvoltage, is when the voltage increases slightly for a brief period. The voltage may rise 5, 10, 20 volts or more but significantly less than the thousands of volts in a spike. It may last for 1/20 of a second to a few seconds but significantly longer than the instantaneous spikes. You may see the lights flicker. Surges are caused by large load changes or power company switching.

Sags or brownouts are the opposite of surges. The voltage can drop 5, 10, 20 volts or more. You may see the lights flicker. Sags are commonly caused by electric motors starting (such as your home's refrigerator or heat pump or a sawmill down the road) or by faults on the power company's lines.

Outages or Blackouts are when the power disappears completely. Outages are frequently caused by wind, auto accident, tree limbs, etc. that knock down power lines.

Any of these conditions can cause immediate failure, system lockup, loss of data, or can weaken parts resulting in later failure. I've been monitoring the power in the shop for almost 24 hours now. It seems we have consistently low voltage with frequent variations of 2-3 volts and at least three sags to a point where a computer might fail. As I write this, my line voltage is fluctuating between 111 and 116 volts.

The good news is that you can protect yourself against any or all of these conditions. There are several types of devices, each designed to protect against various power problems.

A "surge suppresser" offers protection against spikes. (Watch out for rip-offs with names such as "surge stick" that actually offer no power protection!) The more expensive ($50 & up) may also provide some surge protection or offer protection for phone lines, satellite cable protection, etc. A surge suppresser is a must for any expensive electronics such as computers, TV's, satellite systems, stereos, copy machines, etc.

A Line Conditioner is a device that will offer protection against spikes, surges, and sags but offers no protection against outages.

A UPS (Uninterruptable Power Supply) is a device that can solve all of these power problems. The UPS includes batteries and circuitry that allows it to provide power for a few minutes even when the power from the wall dips or goes out. This gives you time to save your work and shut your computer off. There are many different kinds of UPS and a wide range of quality and features.

Now is a good time to evaluate whether your equipment is properly protected and to take action before the full winter storms hit! I'll be happy to help you evaluate your needs.

North Curry Families' and Children's Center

The regular monthly general meeting of the North Curry Families' and Children's Center has been cancelled for December. The NCFCC Board will meet Dec. 8, at 6pm, in the Port Orford City Council Chambers. The public is welcome. The NCFCC is funded by a Families Initiative Grant from The Carpenter Foundation and the Oregon Communities Foundation to promote effective, integrated local services, to promote quality child care, and to develop activities for children and families of North Curry.

Progress has been made to bring more services to the Curry County North Annex. A volunteer receptionist is being trained, and soon DHR agencies, such as Adult and Family Services, Employment, and Senior and Disabled Services, will be better able to provide local service to North Curry Clients.

In November, the NCFCC sponsored three local residents, Brenda Martin, a teacher at the Port Orford Children's Center, Julia Belcher, Driftwood Booster President, and Janet Pretti, NCFCC coordinator, to attend a facilitator training for becoming a love and logic parent. Training was provided by the Coalition for Kids, Inc., in Grants Pass. This innovative program was developed by the Cline/Fay Institute in Golden, Colorado, and has been used successfully by parents and schools throughout the country. If you are interested in becoming part of a study group on love and logic contact the NCFCC, or Janet Pretti.

Another project of the NCFCC is the development of a parenting library. Peggy Wagner, Driftwood Elementary Librarian, has agreed to set aside space and to check out the materials once they have been gathered. Cline/Fay audio tapes will be available for check out, as well as other books and videos on parenting. If anyone has parenting books and magazines that they would like to donate to this project please drop the materials off at Driftwood Elementary or the NCFCC office.

The NCFCC has begun gathering information for a monthly "Of Interest to Kids and Families Calendar". We would like to know of any events, scouting and 4-H meetings, sports events, lectures, etc., so we can get the word out to those interested in attending. Our first calendar will be for January, and will be posted around town. We would like to know of long range plans for future events as well. If anyone is interested in volunteering time to help gather, prepare and distribute the calendar, contact the NCFCC.

The NCFCC just received news of an effort to begin a Kid's Basketball program, for grades 3 - 6, in cooperation with Bandon, Myrtle Point and Powers. Coaches, and volunteers at all levels will be necessary. If you are interested in helping, call Lonnie Pretti, or Keith Rowling 332-5292.

The NCFCC is located at 905 Oregon St., in Port Orford. The office is shared with three other programs, Curry In-Home Services, Curry Community Education and SOCRATES. NCFCC staff is available Wednesdays and Fridays, 10:30am - 4:30pm. They can be reached on those days by phone at 332-5810, or on other days by calling Janet Pretti, 332-1325.

The Barometer

© 1994 by Marlene Gay

I'm the barometer that fell last night...causing your bones to ache!

Nudging you through a restless sleep...suggesting which pill to take.

Outside your door, and from the eaves...raindrops
began to fall,
and suddenly, like a meteorologist,
you could predict a squall!

It's not the dampness that you hate nor its accompanying pain,
but more how foolish you feel becoming a weather vane!

Storm Petrel Wins Award

Kalmiopsis Audubon Society newsletter
The Storm Petrel has won the National Audubon Society newsletter award for the second time.

The Storm Petrel was picked as the best of 19 entries in the small chapter category. The judges' evaluations included statements that The Storm Petrel is a very professional publication for a small chapter, and does an excellent job of covering local issues.

America: A country where they lock up juries and let the defendants out.

Youngsters Basketball

We are starting a coed basketball league for 3rd and 4th graders. We will have a 5th and 6th grade boys team and girls team. We will be playing Bandon, Powers, and Myrtle Point. We will send out sign-up sheets that need to be turned in by December 16. If you get them in before Christmas break we can start forming the teams.

Also, a $5.00 donation is requested to help meet our costs.

Any questions call Keith Rowling at 332-5292 or Lonnie Pretti at 332-1325.

Friends of Cape Blanco

The Friends of Cape Blanco report that the Historic Hughes House has received a record number of visitors this season. The restoration is nearing completion and reflects exceptional authenticity for this "finest of Eastlake Victorian homes on the Oregon coast."

The theme is "An Old Fashioned Christmas". Each room will be decorated in a different interpretation of that theme.

The Friends of Cape Blanco want to be sure to announce that the Cape Blanco Lighthouse with its world famous lens will be open to the public for tours April 1st and the restored lens is expected to be in place.

Open House weekends will be December 10th, 11th, 17th and 18th. We have moved our dates closer to Christmas so that Christmas company can enjoy "Christmas at the Hughes House 1994."

There will be homemade refreshments for all, and the Friends you will mark your calendars early. There is no charge for a tour of the Hughes House, but the restorations are completely dependent on donations from our visitors.

The Hughes House is located on the road to the Cape Blanco Lighthouse and State Park just north of Port Orford. Information is available at most Tourist Information Centers.

Christmas Open House Hours are 2:00 to 7:00 pm.

New At The Library

The Port Orford Library has a wonderful batch of new books, among them some terrific mysteries. One of these is Banjo Boy, the new mystery by Vince Kohler (his third). What is extra-special about Banjo Boy (and the preceding Rainy North Woods, and Rising Dog, also available at our library) is the setting: Here. Vince Kohler, who is now on the Portland Oregonian newspaper staff, was once with the Coos Bay World, and the southern Oregon coast is the setting for his books. "Port Jerome" is the name of his fictional town, and it seems to be a composite of most of the south coast towns from Charleston to Port Orford.

Eldon Larkin is his hero's name, and Eldon is a reporter for the South Coast Sun. He is a trifle goofy, but he manages to come through with a scoop and to solve a murder or two while he gets the news. The characters and Eldon's cars are very funny. The stories are zany and imaginative.

If you want to meet a real live author, he'll be signing his books in Coos Bay this Saturday December 10th, at two book stores: from 11:30am to 1:30pm at Harvest Book Shoppe, 307 Central Street and at Pony Village Mall at House of Books from 3:00-5:00pm.
