Library Ground Breaking By Evan Kramer

This past Sunday 150 people gathered together in agreement and in celebration for the ceremonial groundbreaking for the new Port Orford Public Library. The day was a bit cool, overcast and windy but the spirits were high for the people assembled at the library land located at Fifteenth Street and Highway 101.

It was nice to see Frank and Jane Kramer back in town for the library groundbreaking. Jane was on the library board and Frank was president of the Common Good before they moved to Springfield.

Port Orford Public Librarian Tobe Porter welcomed those in attendance and spoke of celebrating the fact we had raised enough money for our new library. She introduced Port Orford Mayor Jim Auburn who made the following remarks:

“This is a good day for Port Orford and our Community. We’re breaking ground for our new library at a time when libraries in several of our neighboring counties are closed due to the loss of timber payments. We’re fortunate to have a stand-alone library district with its own tax base, not dependent on county funding, and even more fortunate not to have to stress that tax base with a large amount of debt to finance construction of this new library. Tobe Porter and our library board, together with a large number of other volunteers and our community as a whole, managed to raise most of the funds necessary for this new library construction through donations, community sales events, and grants for which we are very thankful. These fund raising activities will continue as construction proceeds and minimize or negate the amount of money we will need to borrow on the recently passed bond measure to complete the project. Thank you, everybody, for what you’re doing to bring this project to fruition.”

Tobe Porter took back the podium and said the Library District would continue raising funds to pay for the library in order not to have to collect on the recently passed library tax bond issue, saying debt was bad.

It was a little over five years ago that Tobe Porter, Library board member Carrie Rogers and Lawyer Michael O’Dwyer stood on this same plot of land and reached a landmark in the quest for building a new library. Back in late June of 2002 O’Dwyer handed over the deed to the property to the Library District. The nearly 30,000 square foot lot was donated by Bob and Norma Carlisle for a new library. The Carlisle’s had moved out of the area by then and are living in Utah now. Another of the key people in the library getting to this point is Robert “Bob” Reinhardt. He was a Port Orford resident who died in 1999 and in his will gave half of his estate to the library for construction of a new library. Reinhardt’s gift to the library capital improvement fund was $80,250 and made by his estate on March 23, 2000. Reinhardt was an engineer who worked on things as diverse as steam locomotives and the Space Shuttle. Jim and Pat Rhodes were instrumental in helping out behind the scenes working with the Carlisle’s and Robert Reinhardt as Alan Mitchell. Every project in Port Orford has a history and this one goes way back.

Tobe Porter thanked the many people who have worked this past five years to make the dream of a new library come true. They included library board members, Library foundation members and Friends of the Library and the numerous volunteers who keep the library open. She also thanked library staff members Sandy Westerman and Midge Hayes.

Porter recounted the story of how she got a generous donation from a billionaire to help build our library and the punch line is that the number one reason he donated $15,000 is because this community has been so supportive of a new library. Porter said the community has donated $616,757 towards the construction of the library. Other monies have come from numerous grants.

DLB Construction, Inc. out of Coos Bay was the winning bidder for the new library at $1,506,641. They will begin construction in mid to late August.

The ceremony concluded with the cutting of the ribbon and that honor was given to long time library supporter Dot Mathews and one of the youngest users of the library Rowen Tilley. Once they cut the ribbon the groundbreaking proceeded with several young children digging into a pile of sand. The next groundbreaking will see bigger equipment in use when DLB sets up shop on the library site. Meanwhile the current library at Port Orford City Hall is there for your use and will be until the new one is built.

Blessing of the Fleet

The Port Orford Friends and Wives of fishers often in the night bid a good night to our fishers, men, and women leaving home and harbor for the fishing grounds. And after a fishing trip the fishers are welcomed home, even on the wings of a storm. Through it all, our fishers will be calm, courageous and confident.

While we drift in deep sleep fishers learn the hardest part of any job is getting up to do it. At the hour of four a clock, hours before dawn, man is at his lease human, wet and cold, must deal with the gear and frozen bait and we sleep. In mortgaged boats they head out slicing the waves in kelp bays breasting steep troughs beyond the reefs to pull at the pots and to pull the gear. They cut their flesh on the gear and hooks, and know the count is down again on what they will unload. While we awake from sleep

For the fishermen and women, each day begins by scanning the horizon and evaluating a host of natural signs: "red skies in the morning, sailors take warning; red skies at night, sailors delight," as the saying goes. But there is much more to figure into the formula: what phase is the moon, do clouds hide rain to keep the ocean surface cool, will the wind lie down so as to be cradled with a gentle rolling motion or will the whitecaps crown the waves or will the storms blow.

The reason for the event is blessings that fishers return safely from the waters and blessings for a bountiful harvest. As a wreath is placed in the water in a special recognition of those who have lost their lives, take a moment to remember fellow mates. The nature of the event will never change, to have boats blessed and prayers for survival both spiritually and economically will remain the focus of the event.

This years Blessing of the Fleet will be held on Saturday August 4 at 11:00 Port Orford Fishermen's Memorial - Port of Port Orford. Sampling of seafood to follow 07-25 Police took a report of child abuse.

07-25 Police took a report of a missing bank bag and tape recorder from a vehicle on 6th Street. If anyone has located that please contact the police department.

Chiefs Note: I've been receiving a lot of complaints about people on walks in the morning as well as other times during the day blocking traffic on several streets in town. Remember that pedestrians only have the right-of-way in crosswalks. All other times they must yield to vehicles approaching. It's alright to Jay-walk as long as you yield to vehicles. I have received complaints of subjects walking in the roadway blatantly causing vehicles to slow down and make dangerous passes. When a juvenile is caught doing this we generally take them to their parents, and the second time we cite them. I feel that adults should already be responsible so I have told my officers to watch for those pedestrians violating the laws by blocking traffic and then take the appropriate action up to and including issuing citations for the violation. Blocking traffic by a pedestrian can also result in arrest for Disorderly Conduct punishable as a misdemeanor so please use your common sense and be courteous to vehicles. Remember if there is no sidewalk, a pedestrian must walk facing traffic, and walk as far as possible to the left side of the roadway.

Letter to the Editor,

Thank you Police Chief Creighton and Officers John Fink and Scott Halse for a quick response to a 911 theft of a personal item. The suspects are in custody and the victim is happy with the returned stolen item. All's well and no one was hurt.

Letter to the Editor,

My knowledge of the squabble over how to regulate Port Orford's businesses is limited to what our local newspapers have printed. I know nothing of the ancillary issues. Nevertheless, I think that we Port Orfordians should remember certain fundamental considerations. Businesses located in our city do not belong to our City Council. They do not belong to the Planning Commission. They belong only to their owners. They began with those owners' imaginations, were birthed by their guts, and are sustained by their toil, tears, and sweat. They are gambles, whose continued existence depends exclusively on how well they serve you and me. Planning that addresses safety is sensible.

No businessman has a right to endanger his neighbors, his workers, or his customers. I infer from our newspapers' stories and letters that the current refinement plan concerns not safety, but style. Style, when it does not affect safety, is a prerogative belonging exclusively to the owners. If an owner decides to give his establishment a theme, such as that of the Old West, that is his prerogative, if he can do that without endangering anyone. But, if a governmental body makes such a decision, it arrogates to itself a prerogative of ownership to which it has no right. Rights are fundamental. They are the source of all righteous power. Adherence to their strictures prohibits the wrong and protects the right.

We ignore them at our peril.

Letter to the Editor,

Just as a quick update on the fundraising for the Port Orford Skate Park Addition, things are moving on, a bit slowly, but still in the forward direction. We still have a few T-shirts available that can be purchased for $12 at Sterling Bank. Tickets for the wonderful piece of glass artwork by artist Hugh McKay are available at Chetco Federal Credit Union. Tickets are two for $5 or 5 for $10 or 20 for $20.

Patti and I put in $100 each to start the T-shirt fund that helped to get started toward the addition. We now would like to ask you to be one of the 100 with a donation of $100. For more information, to buy T-shirts or tickets for the glass artwork or to make a donation, please call 332-8000, 332-1002, 348-2140 or write to: PO Skate Park Committee, c/o Patti McKenzie, 94540 Elk River Road, Port Orford, OR 97465.

Theater 101 Needs You

They say everyone has their 15 minutes of fame - well, here's your chance! Theatre 101 still needs two actors for their opening production of "Blithe Spirit". We need a woman, age 20-40, and a man, age 40-60. The female part is quite small, the male part "medium sized".

So, take a deep breath and give us a call at 332-PLAY to schedule an audition. You'll have a great time!

Very soon we will be ready to accept donations of costumes, props, etc. If you are cleaning out your closet or garage, we'd love to take some stuff off your hands and give you a tax deduction.

Our theatre is undergoing changes! If you saw us on July 4th, you'll see a big difference. New walls are up, the ceiling is painted, and the acting space will soon be midnight blue. Stop by and see it at 1320 Oregon St. (Seaside Plaza). Feel free to bring your paint brush!

Common Good, Inc. News

The Common Good, Inc. would like to thank Circle K and all it's employees and patrons for sponsoring and participating in our "Buy a Star, Be a Star" fund raiser. Stars were hanging everywhere in the store and all you Stars donated a total of $387.54. This money goes directly into our food fund.

The Common Good pays shipping for free packaged & canned food from The Portland Food Bank. Then we supplement those foods to provide nutritionally balanced food boxes, including things such as bread and eggs. The monthly costs for both food supply sources runs from $600-700 per month. We need to raise another $300 for the month of July. If you would like to donate to this great project, mail your check to PO Box 564, Port Orford, 97465. If you want to adopt another month, just write that in on your check. It's tax deductible.

More Activity to aid our needy families: The Democratic Party in Curry County is having a food drive to aid the food banks in each of their locales. Port Orford's donation receptacles are located at Java John's at Battle Rock Park, and at The Sterling Bank. (Remember-outdated foods are not healthy for anyone.)

St. John's Catholic Church members have been greatly involved with on-going collection of Ray's Food Place receipts and donating them to The Common Good. Each dollar gives us one penny. It all adds up. You Stars can also bring your receipts into the Common Good on Wednesdays.

Letter to the Editor,

Mary O. Loan wrote "I just don't understand". After reading her letter it was clear that she just doesn't want to understand. She prefers to misinform the public by writing letters that are slanderous, untrue and even admit to being based on hearsay and rumor. The efforts of a few to obstruct what they feel encumbers their right to do anything they please with their property, regardless of the concerns of the community is at the root of this. The recent letter from Ms. Loan is the epitome of this effort.

It is very interesting that Ms. Loan would choose to rant and rave about what I think and want, when I have not spoken publicly or written to the newspapers with regard to zoning. Her "ranting and raving" is further evidence that misinformation is preferred in light of the fact that I have always freely given what I know to be the facts, with regard to my property, to anybody who has asked. Ms. Loan has never asked me, personally, for a single detail, with regard to my plans or what I am thinking. Her insinuation that I arranged for some "exclusions" to facilitate my efforts is absurd. Restaurants and art galleries have always been an accepted use of commercial property in Port Orford and nobody intended to remove them from that list. I chose not to speak at the meeting to spare the room further redundancy. It is worth noting, public comment is scheduled at the beginning of the council meeting, not after business has been conducted.

The innuendo Ms. Loan makes as to what goes on behind the scenes, according to her "good information", is designed to provoke mistrust in Councilor John Hewitt. Her attempt is disingenuous and disgraceful. John Hewitt's integrity is unsurpassed and even though I don't always agree with him, he is the kind of person who takes the best interest of Port Orford seriously. Anybody that actually knows John understands this fact. For those members of the community that want City Councilors who subscribe to cronyism, John Hewitt is not their man. If someone is looking for behind the scenes manipulators to partner with, they will have to go somewhere else.

Port Orford belongs to anybody that chooses to call it "home". It has nothing to do with how much property you own or how long you have been here.

The future of Port Orford is bright.

Chris Hawthorne

Bandon Landmark Gone

The City of Bandon is missing one of its landmarks. Major demolition was completed on the Bandon Cheese Factory on Highway 101 last Friday. Bandon Cheese Factory was a cheese factory back in 1990 when we moved here and was a very popular spot for cheese tasting, getting an ice cream cone and watching the cheese get made. Tillamook Cheese bought the Bandon Cheese Factory in the 90's and stopped making cheese there. The store remained open for cheese sampling and ice cream cones. Finally it closed for good a couple of years ago and now the building is gone.

Harry Potter Fever

Over fifty people enjoyed the activities at the "New Hogwarts School of Wizardry" (aka Port Orford Library) on Friday, July 20. While waiting for the bewitching hour when the last Harry Potter book could finally be released, assorted witches, wizards, and Muggles made origami owls and folded Muggle Catchers, answered the Harry Potter quiz questions, played a terrific game of Quidditch, and crafted edible wands. The guests sang Happy Birthday to Harry Potter (celebrating his 17th birthday a bit early) and dined on tea sandwiches, butter beer, dementors punch, assorted sweets, and delicious birthday cake. At precisely 12:01am, the final saga of the Harry Potter journey was handed out to those anxiously waiting their copy, and everyone crept home.....not to sleep but to bury their heads in this treasured book.

This program was sponsored by both the Port Orford and Langlois Public Libraries. Many, many thanks go to the creative and tireless volunteers who transformed the Port Orford Council Chambers into a magical place, indeed!

Elvis Tribute at Sixes Grange

Evan Kramer and Just for Fun productions present the Tracker Does Elvis on Saturday night, August 18, at the Sixes Grange Hall. This concert is a benefit fundraiser for Port Orford's food bank the Common Good.

The Tracker does Elvis "Vegas Style" and will also present the music of many other 1950's rock legends from Ricky Nelson, Johnny Cash to Roy Orbison.

Elvis Presley is the King of Rock and Roll and this concert honors and remembers him 30 years after he died at his home Graceland in Memphis, Tennessee on August 16, 1977. Elvis was 42 years old.

Elvis didn't start his career playing big arenas. His first concert for the year of 1955 was on January 4 and was held in the Odessa, Texas high school auditorium. On January 21 he played at the National Guard Armory in Sikeston, Missouri. He played many other high school auditoriums and county fairs before going on to the big time. In 1957 Elvis performed two concerts at the Pan Pacific Auditorium in Los Angeles in late October and ended his performing schedule for that year with two concerts in Hawaii. Elvis was inducted into the United States Army in 1958 and didn't perform a live concert again until 1961. When Elvis got out of the Army he spent the next eight years making films in Hollywood before his famous comeback television concert in 1968. Elvis would have fit in at the Sixes Grange back in 1955.

Tickets for the Tracker Does Elvis are $6 and available in advance on August 1 at the Downtown Fun Zone and McNair True Value Hardware Store in Port Orford. Family tickets are $15. Tickets will also be available the night of the performance for $7.00 or $17.00 for a family ticket for four (2 adults and 2 children). Doors open at 6:45pm and the Tracker takes the stage at 7:30pm. There will be a variety of refreshments for sale provided by volunteers from the Sixes Grange.

Support the Common Good and enjoy a tribute to Elvis on Saturday night, August 18 at the historic Sixes Grange, located on Highway 101 at Sixes River Road.

This is a smoke, alcohol and drug free event.

Coast Guard Day

Sunday, Aug 5, will be the occasion of the Point Orford Heritage Society annual celebration of Coast Guard Day. The long-awaited interpretive sign for the Life Boat has been installed and will be dedicated. The colors will be presented by a Coast Guard color guard from the Coos Bay Station.

POHS is bringing the Oregon Coast Lab Band to Port Orford for a special free concert which will begin at noon. Their top group, "Evolution" will be performing. This band program has been in existence since 1992 with directors Greg and Patti Young.

Bring a chair or blanket and picnic lunch to enjoy while listening to this amazing group of young people. Sack lunches will be available for $6.

Police Catch Suspects

On Tuesday, July 24 Port Orford Police received a report that a purse had just been stolen by a male and female subject from the back of the Wooden Nickel in Port Orford. Witnesses described the vehicle, and while attempting to locate it, Chief Mark Creighton observed a similar vehicle pulling a trailer on Highway 101 just south of Port Orford. After turning on the vehicle to affect a traffic stop, the driver attempted to elude police and turned onto Hubbard Creek Road and then down a driveway. The male subject fled into the brush and the female was immediately arrested.

Officer Fink and Sergeant Halse responded from their homes, and immediately begin a search for the male suspect.

The female identified herself with an Oregon Drivers license with a photo that looked like her. A phone number was located in the pickup truck, and called. The person who answered the phone identified the male and female by their real names. Michelle Brandi Hall was then identified and it was later determined the purse and identification she was using had been stolen from a vehicle near Portland earlier this week. The vehicles were impounded and Hall was initially lodged in the Curry County Jail with two counts of Identity theft, and theft II. She was additionally held for an outstanding warrant from Idaho for sales of Methamphetamine with a bail of $50,000.00.

The male subject was identified as Dale Leon Burkhart and had fled toward the beach. Officer Fink got the city's 4-wheeler and responded to the beach area where a foot chase of the suspect ensued and he got away in the thick brush wearing only shorts and a tank top. Police were without a photograph of Burkhart to distribute. Digital photographs in a camera found in the suspect vehicle revealed a great photo of Burkhart taken by his girlfriend while they were at the dock in Port Orford. It was later determined the camera had been stolen from a vehicle near Portland.

On Thursday Sergeant Halse showed the photograph around town and determined the suspect was still in the area and was going to go use someone's cell phone at 3:00pm at the Port Orford Dock. Sergeant Halse got the unmarked police vehicle and parked at the dock. At 3:00pm Burkhart walked up and was arrested without incident.

Burkhart identified himself with a false name of someone who had their wallet taken in Eastern Oregon, and he had the victim's credit card in his pocket. Burkhart was lodged in the Curry County Jail for Identity theft, Burglary II, Theft II, Attempting to Elude a Police Officer in a vehicle and eluding a police officer on foot. Chief Creighton advised "it could take us weeks to determine who else have been victims of these people". "We located many items in their vehicles which appear to have been stolen, or purchased with stolen credit cards, and forged stolen checks, and it could take us weeks to sort through this case and determine who the property we recovered belongs to.

An Open Invitation

My name is Charlene Wolfe and although many of you know who I am, I would imagine there are just as many of you who don't! Although am a resident of Port Orford, I too often find myself "out on the road" traveling for my business, which is of a nature difficult to describe; however, I will attempt to do so whenever asked - often to great length!

The Port Orford Arts Council has asked me to facilitate the creation of a "medicine wheel" in March of 2008. I am grateful for this opportunity and look forward to sharing this healing modality and cultural art form with my community. It will endure wind, rain, and time, while providing a place of serenity and meditational quietude where all can partake of its subtle energy as they wish.

As this exciting event is for our entire community, community participation would be welcome! Come one - come all! There are no factors of exclusion. If there were, creating a "medicine wheel" would be an empty gesture of no meaning whatsoever!

Our first planning meeting will be Sunday, September 23, in the Council Chambers at City Hall. It will begin at 1:00pm. We will be placing plenty of brightly colored flyers around town to keep reminding you!

At the meeting, I will answer any questions and explain more about just what a "medicine wheel" is, what qualifies me to facilitate the project, why we might want to have one here in Port Orford, and what each and every one of you can do to be a part of this exciting project.

I look forward to seeing you there!
